

What others are saying about Darryl John Kennedy

“He’s a cultural ambassador of the first order. He’s the only American, who has had such a successful TV and radio schedule here.

I recommend him highly as a facilitator of cultural exchange and as a musician.”

James Chrisenger, Cultural Attaché for the U.S. Embassy in Prague, Czech Republic

“Thank you for bringing to our attention all that you have done around the world on behalf of our great country”

Dan Bartlett’s office, Special counselor to the President, The White House

“I truly recommend your efforts in using music and culture to bridge the gap between the United States and other countries of the world. It is by employing peaceful methods, as you do so well, that we will truly bring this world closer together.”

Congresswoman Lois Capps, Dem. Oxnard, CA

It is wonderful to meet people who are committed to using culture to build ties for the U.S. around the world. We look forward to staying in touch about future plans you have.

Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs, US Department of State

“In these political unstable times, it is essential that the United States build strong global alliances. Effective detente is vital to national security. Darryl Kennedy is an integral part of Americas warm hand of friendship to the world.”

Michael Phillip, Chairman of the board, World Affairs Council, Ventura County, CA

“I am impressed with the accolades you have received for your work as a musician as well as a cultural liaison. You have certainly traveled extensively to share with foreign audiences you music and gifts.”

Travis Horel, Deputy Assistant Secretary of State for Professional and Cultural Exchanges, US Dept. of State

“I see Darryl John Kennedy as the true Ambassador of the American people. He is a Man of the World. I’ve had the pleasure of working with him on three recordings, dedicated to the children of Lebanon.

What the world needs are people like Darryl who are willing and able to offer their talents for the benefit of less fortunate people in the world.”

World President of the International College of Surgeons, Dr. Nadey Hakim

“The United States of America benefits greatly by having such an exceptionally talented individual who can promote goodwill throughout the world. Darryl’s extensive travels around the world have assisted him not only as a musician but in becoming a cultural ambassador of the arts.

I personally recommend Darryl John Kennedy as a cultural representative of the United States.”

Milwaukee Mayor, John Norquist

“Darryl’s music is his unique expression of communicating himself. Darryl can promote goodwill and unity throughout the world. He represents America in its finest form.”

U.S. Director of the International Schoenstatt Sisters Rosary Campaign, Sister Mary Lestina

“Kennedy is the only American I know, who can successfully utilize the arts for diplomatic means to improve global detente. It is this rare ability that makes him indispensable for US foreign relations.”

Todd Thiel, President, McKinley Reserve
